WHS ATHLETIC LEADERSHIP IS LOOKING FOR new members!

Limited seats are available, but if student-athletes are interested, you should contact Mrs. Taylor directly via email, and she will get you an application.

The Woodsville High School Athletic Leadership Council (ALC) is a student-led organization that promotes and supports the school's athletic programs, fosters sportsmanship, leadership, and teamwork among student-athletes, and encourages school spirit and pride. The council aims to create a positive and inclusive athletic culture while serving as a bridge between student-athletes, coaches, administrators, and the broader school community.

Woodsville High School Athletic Leadership Council members participate in regular meetings, plan and execute events and initiatives, and serve as role models and leaders within the athletic community. Student-athletes develop valuable life skills through involvement in the council, such as leadership, teamwork, communication, and problem-solving, while contributing to a positive and inclusive athletic culture that benefits the entire school community. The ALC plays a crucial role in promoting school spirit, fostering sportsmanship, and supporting the growth and success of student-athletes both on and off the field.
